Just in case you are wondering.....

WHAT IS THE “LAST CHANCE SALOON”?

Just as in the old American West, saloons were in tents. Some simply set on creek banks, at a cross road, some at the end of track on railroad construction, or around mining camps and in new towns. A couple of Whiskey barrels and a few planks was all that was needed to start. As the West grew, the saloon continued to be the center of social interaction for the Cowboy, Miner, Businessman or Traveler, a social gathering point for entertainment, a place for the exchange of information, or a place to transact business.

The Last Chance Saloon is an Old West Style Saloon in tents fashioned after the saloons of the Old West that is all about social activities. Tables to sit and rest, talk, play cards, games, discuss your shooting prowess or just lie about how good or poorly you shot. The saloons music is Classic Country juke Box, easy to just listen or to socialize. There are Texas Hold “Em games every night.

The Last Chance Saloon is proud to continue the fine tradition of being the center for social activities and provide that Old West social atmosphere at this year’s 22nd Annual Chorro Valley Shoot-Out, 2016 SASS Western Regional Championships.

The Last Chance Saloon does not sell any food or beverages, so it is set up as a private party for the event shooters and their guests. You can obtain a full proprietorships good for the length of the event, (Thursday, Friday & Saturday) for only $30.00. Proprietors are entitled access to the Saloon, gaming area, and to enjoy adult beverages, including well drinks, ice cold beer, a wine bar and the famous “Howling At The Moon Brandy” right from the barrel. For a Social Proprietorship, there is diet and non-diet sodas, lemonade and of course “Sarsaparilla” for only $20.00 for all three days. We will be making Margaritas, but no other fancy drinks “this is a Cowboy Bar, after all.” There is no greater value anywhere.

All event participants are welcome to come in and sit around and talk. All you need is your event badge.
